Subject: Termination of tenancy of Shop No. 14, Gandhi Market, and demand for arrears of rent

Sir,

Under instructions from and on behalf of my client, Smt. Lakshmi Devi, aged 58 years, the absolute owner of Shop No. 14, Gandhi Market, Bengaluru (hereinafter the "schedule premises"), I hereby serve upon you the following legal notice:

1. You have been in occupation of the schedule premises as a monthly tenant since 1 April 2021, under an unregistered rental agreement dated 25 March 2021, at a monthly rent of Rs. 25,000 (Rupees Twenty-Five Thousand only), payable in advance on or before the 5th day of every English calendar month. You also paid a refundable security deposit of Rs. 1,50,000 at the commencement of the tenancy.
2. You have committed default in payment of rent for the months of April, May, June and July 2026, amounting to Rs. 1,00,000 (Rupees One Lakh only), despite repeated oral requests made by my client and her son, Sri Mohan, on 10 May 2026, 12 June 2026 and 8 July 2026.
3. Further, without the knowledge or written consent of my client, you have sub-let a portion of the schedule premises to one Mr. Ravi, who is running a mobile accessories counter there, in violation of Clause 9 of the rental agreement.
4. In view of the above, my client hereby terminates your monthly tenancy of the schedule premises with effect from the expiry of fifteen days from the date of receipt of this notice, as provided under Section 106 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.
5. You are therefore called upon to: (a) pay the arrears of rent of Rs. 1,00,000 within fifteen days of receipt of this notice; and (b) quit and deliver vacant and peaceful possession of the schedule premises to my client on the expiry of the said period of fifteen days, after removing the sub-tenant and all your belongings.

6. Please take notice that if you fail to comply with this notice, my client will be constrained to institute appropriate proceedings before the competent court for your eviction, for recovery of the arrears of rent with interest at 12 percent per annum, and for damages for use and occupation at the rate of Rs. 1,000 per day from the date of termination of the tenancy until delivery of possession, entirely at your risk as to costs and consequences. My client reserves the right to adjust the arrears against the security deposit.

A copy of this notice has been retained in my office for further action.

Yours faithfully,

(R. Narayan)
